

Central Park Medical Unit

* 10-13 ****

Liam Matthew Gorman is the son of Central Park Medical Unit Volunteer Paramedic Anthony Gorman.

Liam suffers from a severe and rare form of bone marrow failure called

Diamond Blackfan Anemia

He is clinically transfusion dependent and requires life saving packed red blood cell transfusions every few weeks.

BLOOD DRIVE

All blood types needed

Please eat regular meals the day of the drive.

Bring Photo ID and know your Social Security Number

Date: Wednesday May 23rd 2007

Time: 3:30pm to 9:00pm

Place: TransCare New York

Bank Street Garage

800 Bank Street

Off of Bank Street & Foster Ave.

Brooklyn, New York 11236

Blood donations can be made at any Blood Center on any day.

For a list of blood centers in your area please log onto:

<http://www.americasblood.org/>

Please tell the Blood Center that you are with Liam's Group # 18159

PLEASE SIGN UP NOW

For more information contact your Supervisor

OR

Anthony Gorman, NREMT-P

AnthonyG@TransCare.com

718 763 8888 x 504

Roberta Jackson, SPHR

RobertaJ@TransCare.com

718 763 8888 x 360

redcell911@verizon.net