

Director, EMS Training
Location: Brighton NY
Company: Brighton Volunteer Ambulance
Posting Date: 18 July 2009

Job Description:

Brighton Volunteer Ambulance, Inc. (BVA) provides emergency medical services and health education to the Town of Brighton. Utilizing state-of-art equipment, five ambulances and one ALS Flycar, and an experienced staff of 36+ career EMTs and Paramedics and 60+ volunteers, we deliver quality emergency care and transportation for the Town. With a 2008 call volume exceeding 4,400 calls, we are a busy and growing emergency medical service.

Brighton Volunteer Ambulance is currently looking for a full-time Training Director responsible for planning, organizing, and managing the EMS training of Brighton Volunteer Ambulance and the community.

Specific responsibilities include: managing the Training Department staff and QA/QI Committee, developing, implementing, and evaluating training manuals and policies, organizing training classes and updates, ensuring programs and services are successfully delivered, establishing operating and capital training budgets, managing the Rapid Recertification Program, maintaining training records and current EMS certifications for all employees, evaluating and assisting in the field training of employees, coordinating the assistant program, orienting new members, and reporting training and QA/QI status.

The successful candidate will be a NYS-certified or reciprocity-eligible EMT-B or higher with experience in employee supervision, training and orientation and:

- Minimum 2 years experience as a trainer (FTO) in a leadership capacity;
- NYS certified EMT or higher (EMT-P preferred);
- AHA CPR Instructor (Instructor Trainer preferred);
- HAZMAT and OSHA BBP training;
- PSIM and Command Post Operations or similar qualifications or experience;
- ACLS, BTLs, and PALS certified (Instructor preferred);
- Paramedic Preceptor and/or CIC in Monroe County a plus;
- Meets BVA employee requirements (certifications, background checks, medical clearance, etc.)

For consideration, please email your resume and salary requirements to bvarecruiting@gmail.com.

We offer excellent benefits and competitive salary commensurate with experience.
