

Rockland people in the news

Ambulance corps on patrol Oct. 31

CHESTNUT RIDGE: The William P. Faist Volunteer Ambulance Corps will be driving through neighborhoods as part of its 2010 "Light the Night" from 5 to 9 p.m. Oct. 31. The corps members will help make sure trick-or-treaters and their families stay safe. The ambulance crews will distribute glow sticks to the little ghosts and goblins, so that drivers will see the children more easily. "Light the Night" is also a chance for the community to interact with the crews in a nonemergency situation. For information, contact Glenn Goldberg, corps president, at 845-729-3433.

Collegians help at nursing home

MONSEY: Students from Nyack College participated in a Labor Day give-back effort on Sept. 6 at Northern Metropolitan nursing home. A total of 20 students played intergenerational games, baked, and cleaned up the grounds, followed by lunch and an ice cream social with the residents and participants in its Northern Metropolitan Adult Day Health Care. In addition, Northern Metropolitan's Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program driver Wesner Bellanton recently delivered a birthday cake to Bessie Samuels when she turned 102. He has been delivering kosher SNAP meals to her for more than 15 years.

Naomi's program honors Morahan

SPRING VALLEY: Naomi's Program of Excellence Inc. presented a plaque to the family of the late state Sen. Thomas Morahan Oct. 8. Morahan was a supporter of the program, founded in 2002 as a family-run academic and cultural enrichment organization. The program meets at the Spring Valley Extension Center of Rockland Community College.

Allstate donation to help Tiferes Yaakov

SPRING VALLEY: Allstate agency owner Zev Rosenbaum has been named an Agent Hero by Allstate Insurance Company's New York Region and awarded a $500 grant for a local youth program. Rosenbaum donated the grant to Tiferes Yaakov, a girls high school in Monsey, to be used for scholarships.

Yannuzzi praised at art show in N.J.

MONTEBELLO: Rose Yannuzzi received the Honorary Award for watercolors/pastels for the body of her watercolor paintings exhibited on Sept. 26 at the 12th annual Art at the Oval 2010 Juried Fine Art and Fine Craft Exhibition in Livingston, N.J. She is a watercolor artist and photographer who focuses on landscapes, waterscapes, dramatic skies and reflections, and flowers. She has exhibited her work at juried competitions at the Ridgewood Art Institute, the Edward Hopper House, St. Catherine's 11th Annual Photo, Art and Poetry Exhibition in Ringwood, N.J., and the Northeast Watercolor Society 2010 Annual Member Show. In May 2010, she had a solo exhibit of her work at the Suffern Free Library. She is a member of the Piermont Flywheel Gallery.

Quattrone named to round table

SUFFERN: Frank Quattrone, president of Quattrone Financial Services in Suffern, has been named a life member of the Million Dollar Round Table. He is also a financial professional with The Prudential Insurance Company of America's Oradell, N.J., agency.

People in the News is compiled by staff writer Emily Kratzer. Announcements are listed on Sundays. To submit information, send an e-mail to ekratzer@lohud.com or a fax to 845-578-2477.

We focus on automating Marriott® Hotels' global invoice process. So they don't have to.

Learn more at RealBusiness.com

xerox
 Ready For Real Business

Print Powered By  FormatDynamics™