The Officers and Directors of the New York State Volunteer Ambulance and Rescue Association, Inc. Stand in grief along with Huntington Community First Aid Squad and FDNY EMS as we mourn the loss of

FDNY Lieutenant Alison Russo
Paramedic

On Thursday September 29, 2022 while at work, Alison Russo was stabbed in an unprovoked attack. She was taken to a hospital in Queens, where she succumbed to her injuries.

Alison would have entered her 30th year as a volunteer member of the Huntington Community First Aid Squad in November. During her time with Huntington, she served as Ex-Captain of Co. 4 from 1997-2001 and again from 2009-2016 in addition to being a certified Crew leader, an EVO and a Paramedic. In 2017, she became an administrative member serving on the Training Review Committee, the QA/QI Committee, the uniform committee and the ALS committee.

Alison joined the FDNY as an EMT in March 1998 and was promoted to a paramedic in 2002 before becoming a lieutenant in 2016. She worked out of numerous EMS stations through her career, including Station 20, Station 17, Station 16, Station 45, Queens Tactical Response Group and Station 49. On Sept. 11, 2011, Alison responded to the World Trade Center and aided the rescue and recovery efforts of victims.

Alison leaves behind her Parents, her daughter and her grandchildren.
