Have you experienced...

- Difficulty recruiting or keeping new members
- Personality conflicts
- Issues between paid staff and volunteers
- Stress and burnout
- Disagreement between leadership and frontline members
- Lack of support / having to do it all yourself
- Small group of people doing everything

You are not alone!

Every one of these issues can be resolved when you become aware of & practice the leadership strategies offered in our programs.

Communication: The Foundation for a Thriving Organization

Enhancing communication is the first step to creating a thriving organizational culture and effective leadership. This interactive and engaging program gives you cutting edge practices & strategies for dealing with difficult people, conflict, overcoming barriers and getting the results you want.

Leadership I: Breathing New Life Into Your Organization

Leadership is more than a position or a title – It’s a desire to bring out the best in others. This training will enhance your capacity to be an effective leader in the world of Emergency Services Organizations & beyond. You will learn how to: Influence others without manipulation or coercion, bring out the best in others, and begin to create a vision others want to follow.

Leadership II: Advancing Leadership Capacity

Building on the foundation of the above courses, this program delivers advanced strategies for designing a sustainable organization. The topics covered: Bringing a vision to reality and holding others accountable by not doing it all yourself will solidify the successful future of your organization.
