Attention All Emergency Responders!

Nassau County Executive Ed Mangano Invites you to Attend

Autism Awareness Training

Wednesday August 31, 2016 at 7:00 PM
Morrelly Center at the Nassau OEM complex 510 Grumman Rd. W, Bethpage, NY, 11714

Given by Nationally Recognized Experts

Sergeant Jimmy Donohoe & Captain Bill Cannata
Pensacola Police Department & Westbrook Fire Department

Excellent Opportunity for all Emergency Responders

- Education on what autism is
- How people are affected by it
- Different levels of autism & how to deal with it
- Tools to help identify people with autism and sensory problems
- Calming techniques when necessary restraints are required
- Important tips on where to look for a lost autistic child when reported missing
- And much, much more.

Approved for 3 EMS CME credits by the Nassau REMSCO

Seating is limited to 150 people, to reserve a seat please call Nassau EMS Academy 516-572-8530

In Cooperation with & Sponsored By

Anthony J. Santino Supervisor
Craig J. Craft, Commissioner