CURRENT TRENDS IN SUBSTANCE ABUSE

Madison County Emergency Management is partnering with other local agencies to promote a seminar on current trends in substance abuse.

It is being held:
March 7, 2016 at 9:00 to 11:00 AM and repeated at 7:30 to 9:00 PM
Colgate Inn, 7 Payne St., Hamilton, NY

This is a free event.

The presenter is Officer Jermaine Galloway. He is highly regarded as one of the nation’s top experts in various drug and alcohol trends. His countless hours of research keep his presentations current, evolving with the trends. These efforts have won Officer Galloway 3 national awards and 1 international award, since 2009. As one of the top resources in the country for drug trends, Officer Galloway has trained more than 75,000 people nationwide!

TOPICS COVERED:
• Alcohol and drug clothing
• Alcoholic energy drinks
• Alcopops
• Alcohol and drug concealment methods and containers
• Drug related music and groups, logos, stickers, new technology
• Youth party tendencies, party games
• Non-traditional alcoholic beverages
• Social networking sites
• Synthetic drugs, OTC drugs
• Inhalants, concentrates, E-cigarettes, and popular party drugs

These new trends are very popular and it is important for parents, community members and all who are involved in prevention, education, treatment or enforcement to understand these sweeping changes in the drug culture. For each person to help prevent youth and adult substance abuse, you must know what is going on in your community.

To pre-register go to: http://goo.gl/forms/5fM2G9qgxs.

Additional information on this event can be secured by calling 315-264-7640.