Autism: First Responder Training Conference

FREE workshop for EMTs, paramedics, firefighters & other first responders, hospital & school personnel, & law enforcement

Presenter

Bill Cannata
Program Coordinator,
Autism Law Enforcement Education Coalition (ALEC)
as seen on NBC’s Today Show

&

Ray Sitler
Suffolk County Police Department
father of child with autism who trains recruits and personnel in how to interact and tend to the needs of the disabled

Topics:

• Preparing for an emergency involving a person with an ASD.
• How to identify characteristics and behaviors of a person with ASD.
• How to effectively communicate with a person with ASD.
• Special tactics, rescue techniques, and patient care.
• How to build relationships with the ASD community.
• Fire and Life Safety Education, learning techniques and safety drills.

Merrick check-in: 9:30 a.m. Hampton Bays check-in: 8:30 a.m.

Two sessions on Long Island:

Wednesday, April 13
9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.
Merrick Golf Club
2550 Clubhouse Road, Merrick

Plus
Guest Speaker
Sgt. Jimmy Donohoe,
Take Me Home Program,
Pensacola Police Department

light breakfast served
Lunch by Outback

To register, go to elija.org
Information: suereek@aol.com

Saturday, April 16
9 a.m. to 1 p.m.
Hampton Bays Middle School
Ponquogue Ave., Hampton Bays

light breakfast served

Introduction by
Joel Vetter, Suffolk County Fire, Rescue & Emergency Services
father of child with autism

To register, call the Suffolk County Department of Health Services, Division of Emergency Medical Services at 631-852-5080
info@fpf4autism.org

Thanks to:
Town of Hempstead,
Anthony Santino, Supervisor
and
Hampton Bays School District
Lars Clemenson, Superintendent for providing the venues.

Sponsored by:

Nassau-Suffolk Autism Society of America
EJ Autism Foundation
Flying Point Foundation for Autism
Autism Coalition of Long Island

ELIJA
AHRC NASSAU
SOUTHAMPTON HOSPITAL

The class will count for three hours of non-core CME in the Special Consideration category for the NYS CME requirements.