Prehospital Recognition of and Clinical Treatment of Patients with Sepsis

Presentation will cover prehospital treatment of sepsis and septic shock, as well as the in-hospital course of treatment for patients suffering sepsis.

SEPSIS STEPS

SEPTIC SHOCK
Severe Sepsis with persistent:
- Signs of End Organ Damage
- Hypotension (SBP <90)
- Lactate >4 mmol/L

SEVERE SEPSIS
- Sepsis +
- Signs of End Organ Damage
- Hypotension (SBP <90)
- Lactate >4 mmol/L

SEPSIS
- 2 SIRS
- Confirmed or suspected infection

SIRS
- T >100.4°F
- <96.8°F
- RR >20
- HR >100
- WBC >12,000
- <4,000
- >10% bands
- PCO2 <32 mmoHg

Date: December 19, 2017: 6:30 – 8:00pm

Presenter: We are honored to have as our guest:

Michael Gough, MD, FCCP
Critical Care ICU Intensivist at Catholic Health / Kenmore Mercy Hospital

Location:
Twin City Ambulance
555 Commerce Dr.
Amherst, NY 14228

To register email
shulsman@tcaems.com
or call:
(716) 692-2342 ext. 136