Join us for a wide-ranging program on several aspects of EMS care, including the presentation of a pediatric case and a Teleflex representative’s demonstration and skills lab regarding the Arrow EZ-IO vascular-access system.

Potential areas of focus:

- Statistical review of patients
- Case summaries
- Discussion of education and in-service opportunities
- Continuing medical education credit availability
- Collaborative opportunities between EMS and trauma teams

Emergency Medical Services Update
Demonstration, education and discussion

Monday, January 14
Surgical Skills Lab, Westchester Medical Center
2 p.m. – 4 p.m.

Light refreshments will be provided